fyi , as received from Marcia Merrins, since LWVUS website is not working. But, there is an error on election date---it is not Nov.1, but Nov. 8., nationally. But, here's a note from LWVCO, to amend the correction:

Just for your information, Colorado does have its election day on November 1, thanks to a state constitutional amendment passed several years ago which calls for odd-year elections to be held on the first Tuesday in November. We and state officials are working hard to educate our voters.
Yours,
Lineah Davey LWV Colorado
