

Election Judge

Promote Democracy - Serve as a Pollworker on Election Day!

Election Judges must meet the following qualifications:

- Registered electors who reside in the political subdivision, unless otherwise excepted, and are willing to serve – knowing that Election Day runs from 6:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.;
- Be U.S. citizens by the date of the election at which they are scheduled to work;
- Be physically and mentally able to perform the duties of an Election Judge;
- Attend a mandatory Election Judge class prior to each election at which they work;
- Never been convicted of election fraud, any other election offense, or fraud; and
- Neither a candidate whose name appears on the ballot in the precinct that they are appointed to serve nor a member of the immediate family, related by blood or marriage to the second degree, of a candidate whose name appears on the ballot in the precinct that they are appointed to serve.

Get involved and assist voters on Election Day. Earn extra money (stipend varies by county).

Contact your county elections official for more information.

If you are a registered voter, you may serve as a pollworker!

 Employment Coverage Thresholds - A coverage threshold is an amount of earnings that triggers coverage under the Social Security program. Earnings below the threshold are not taxable under Social Security nor do such earnings count toward future benefits.

There is a half day training required for which you will receive a stipend of $20. Your stipend for the day at the polls is $100, paid shortly after the election.
